UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:1692
ANSWERED ON:02.08.2000
IXTH WORLD HINDI CONFERENCE
JAGDAMBI PRASAD YADAV

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the resolutions adopted and recommendations made in the Sixth World Hindi Conference held in London;

(b) the amount received from the advertisements published in each of the publications of Conference and remuneration paid for the write-ups published therein indicating the names of the authors to whom it was paid;

(c) the reasons for irregularities in realisation of money from the advertisements and not paying the remuneration to the authors; and

(d) the action to be taken by the Government in this regard?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (AJIT KUMAR PANJA)

(a) The final resolution adopted during the VI World Hindi Conference contained the following main recommendations:

(1) Mahatma Gandhi International Hindi University should be developed as an International Centre for assimilating information pertaining to Hindi from all over the world.

(2) World Hindi Secretariat should start functioning at the earliest.

(3) Hindi should be made as one of the languages of the United Nations.

(4) Information Technology in Hindi should be developed and standardized.

(5) Modern Gadgets of Hindi should be liberally distributed.

(6) Seventh World Hindi Conference would be organized in Fiji.

(b) & (c) ICCR had brought out a special issue of `Gagananchal` on the occasion of the VI World Hindi Conference, which does not have any advertisement at all. The names of the authors whose articles were published and the honorarium paid to them is annexed. The Organisers of the Conference, i.e., Hindi Samiti, UK, Gitanjali- Bahubhashiya Sahityik Samudai, Birmingham and Bhartiya Bhasha Sangam, York had also brought out a Special Issue of the regular quarterly magazine `Purvai`. The organizers had realised an amount of 1,200/- British Pound (Rs.84,000/- approx.) from advertisement. There was no irregularity. As per the normal practice of this magazine, no remuneration was paid to any of the authors.

d) Does not arise.
